Staffing for 2023

Below is a letter from Adam Boulus, Director Windsor Network in regard to my replacement for Term 1. I know Mrs Neorcsik will capably fill in for me whilst I'm on leave.

Dear Parents and Caregivers,

I write to provide you an update on the principal position at Hillside Public School.

Mrs Eastman has decided to take a period of leave in 2023 and an Expression of Interest for the Relieving Principal position for Term 1 2023, with a possibility of an extension was conducted and finalised.

I am absolutely delighted to advise that the successful candidate for the role of Relieving Principal of Hillside Public School, Term 1 2023, is Mrs Koula Neorcsik, substantive Assistant Principal at Annangrove Public School.

Mrs Neorcsik has relieved as Principal at Annangrove Public School and has an excellent understanding of curriculum implementation and school excellence. I warmly welcome Mrs Neorcsik to Hillside Public School and to our Windsor Principal Network.

I look forward to working with Mrs Neorcsik and the team at Hillside in doing great things for our students and wish Mrs Eastman an enjoyable and relaxing period of leave.

Adam Boulus, Director Educational Leadership – Windsor Principal Network

We will be farewelling Miss Courtney Tobin at the end of this term as she has received a permanent position through Merit Selection, at Kings Langley Public School. She will be greatly missed by the students, staff and parents. We thank her for her contribution to Hillside over the last year and a half and congratulate her on her appointment and wish her all the best at Kings Langley. Our loss is their gain.

Mrs Jenni Hoogesteger, Mrs Kirsty Newbury, Mrs Carolina Paba, Mrs Jenny Warren, Mrs Michelle Feely, Miss Kate Eastman and Mrs Sam Mark will all be returning next year.

As mentioned previously we have been able to advertise, through Merit Selection, for the second permanent classroom teacher. The application process closes this afternoon and hopefully the selection panel – Jenni Hoogesteger, James Laugesen and I will be able to short list the candidates and hold interviews next week. As soon as there is a successful candidate chosen, I will notify everyone.
